

Master of Education Program

On-campus Housing, 2023

MEd students reside in Maclellan and Rymer Halls. Nicknamed MacRymer, it is made up of suites accommodating one to four persons. Each suite consists of a sleeping room(s), study room, and bathroom; furnished with beds, dressers, desks, small microwave and small refrigerator. There are also “commons/kitchen” areas on each floor.

Additional details re: housing will be provided about one month prior to the on-campus session.

To accommodate differing personal needs, a tiered cost structure is available for housing.

- 4 people per suite: $150 per person per week
- 3 people per suite: $202 per week for the single; $149 per week for each of the two sharing
- 2 people per suite: $261 per person per week
- 1 person per suite: $366 per week

Cost information is included on the registration form. Suite assignments will be made per your request as much as possible. Please request only suitemate(s) who has agreed to be a suitemate.

Housing is not available for family members unless the family member is registered in the MEd program.
